

IMPROVEMENT MEETING.

Although the weather was unfavorable, and the audience thin, the meeting called last week, by the Committee for subscriptions to execute the Academy improvements, was held on Thursday evening, Charles Linsley, Esq. in the chair, and Levi Peck, Secretary. The subscription committee reported that they commenced under favorable circumstances, and had reason to expect that the amount could be raised, and can be now raised, without difficulty,—that having ascertained, however, that the select men had changed their intentions, with respect to a ready action concerning a part of the plan adopted, they felt bound in view of the strong and definite assurances given on that point, at the preceding meeting, to report the fact, as it now stands, and ask to be excused from further service, or receive new instructions.

Upon which it was by vote resolved that the committee be instructed to raise the necessary funds without delay, if possible, and obtain the action of the select men in conformity with the adopted plan, for the streets around the common, if they cannot for the whole.

After this there arose a discussion respecting the best mode of disposing of public money for improvement of the streets; and inasmuch as the present charter is not so explicit as is agreed to be desirable respecting the powers of the trustees on that subject, it was resolved that a committee be raised to draw a petition to the next Legislature, and have it circulated among the freemen, for such alterations and amendments to the charter as may be necessary. The committee appointed for this purpose consists of

E. D. BARBER, Esq.
Prof. A. C. TWING,
C. HILL, Esq.

The Rev. John Pierpont, of Boston, has been recently delivering lectures alternately upon Temperance and 3d partyism, in various places in this state. He is said to be a man of great eloquence and power. But his position on the subject of abolishing slavery must alarm every friend of the stability of the Union and the constitution. We are told that he took the same ground as was taken at the Buffalo Abolition Convention which is to regard the constitution as null and void whenever its provisions may be adjudged by the people as immoral, or contrary to the laws of God.

The people of Vermont, can never give countenance to such sentiments, which render the constitution utterly powerless, and if generally adopted, will certainly end in revolution, anarchy, civil war, bloodshed and a certain dissolution of the Union. Amidst such a variety of conflicting opinions, civil and religious, as exists in this country, if every man's breast is to be the tribunal to decide upon the validity of the constitution, if Millers, Mormons, Come-outers, Jews and Gentiles, Catholics and Protestants, slave holders and abolitionists are each to obey the constitution as they understand it, instead of referring it to the judicial tribunals of the country, then the constitution might be as well prostrated first as last.—It is a worthless parchment! It is a rope of sand!

Philadelphia Riots.—Our readers will find that a frightful insurrection spirit still exists in Philadelphia. Riot, anarchy, and even civil war exists in that city. There is an open and organized rebellion on the part of a certain faction against the constitution authorities. A great sacrifice of human life has already attended the outbreak, far exceeding the Kensington riots a few weeks since.—The news later than that contained in another column is, that 13 have been killed and 50 more wounded. Troops continually arrive from the country, and the force is now very imposing. But up to July 11th no further mobs or outrages had been committed. The natives have cannon, fire arms and ammunition, and are determined to prevent any entrance of the military into Southwark. No apprehensions are now entertained of a renewal of the riots provided the military do not enter the insurgent district. A still later paper says that the rioters had broken up their organization, and the cannon were returned to the places they were taken from.

The disturbances first originated from the fact, that the Native Americans had pitched tents in Fisher's woods near the city on the 4th. On the night of that day a party of Irishmen forcibly expelled the persons in charge of them and demolished the tents.—This occasioned much excitement which was blown into a flame by the report that arms had been placed in St. Philips church. Our readers have seen the sequel.

GALLANT LOUISIANA.

If there is any whig state in the Union likely to be seriously influenced from our ranks by the annexation question it is Louisiana. Holders of Texas Bonds and Land scrips to the amount of millions on millions through this State. But thanks to the great patriotic spirit of the whig party, it stands firm to its principles against the most urgent temptations. The whig papers in New Orleans are in high spirits at the unexpected favorable result in that city. The Tropic says that Thibodaux (a whig gain) has been elected to Congress by 500 majority at least, and is confident of the success of Bordelon in the 4th. The city of New Orleans is revolutionized, although probably 500 whig voters are absent from the city. Seven of the ten members of the legislature, have been elected by the whigs. Judging from these results in the city, little doubt remains that the whigs have secured a majority in the legislature. Thus has Louisiana demonstrated her ability to carry Henry Clay next fall by thousands. If Polk, Dallas and Texas are defeated in Louisiana, what better fate awaits them in the union. Thus ends the boasted triumph of locofocoism in February last when Sidel was elected over the whig candidate for the Senate by 400 majority. Says a N. O. paper, "bid our friends abroad be of good cheer, Louisiana has never bowed to the Texas Treason, and never will." Returns however from the counties are as yet imperfect and of course our hopes may be disappointed in the details. But small doubts can remain that Henry Clay will carry the State.

TEMPEST IN A TEA-POT.

One of the most interesting and edifying exercises of the Loco club in Middlebury from its commencement has been that of reviling the Galaxy. Several of the more distinguished luminaries of the party have deemed it expedient to make the most savage assaults with a view to destroy the influence of a journal, which has ventured sacrilegiously to interrupt the worship of their idol, and interposed so many obstacles to the progress of locofocoism in Addison County. But we have never learnt that these gentlemen have indulged in personal abuse of the editor. From a communication on our table made us by a certain chiel takin' notes at the last meeting, we discover this ungracious task has been assumed by a certain small twinkler of the Democracy, who has recently shone with such a dingy lustre as to utterly disgust the most respectable portion of his own party. Because a few weeks since in our absence, the friend to whom we entrusted our paper called upon an ex-dignitary to publish to the world a resolution he introduced into the Democratic club, in which he charged the whigs with all the loss of life and property destroyed by the mob at Philadelphia, and alleged that Mr. Clay himself advanced riotous doctrine, our ex-official took fire, and after four weeks conning over the vocabulary of abuse, and carefully selecting the choicest epithets, at the last meeting of his club he disgorged his whole magazine upon us, in that bullying blubbering & self-sufficient style which so peculiarly distinguishes this grandiloquent orator. But we have more important business on our hands than banding epithets with such a very sweet tempered specimen of the party. We leave him to the petty passions, and that silly vanity & self-conceit which has never ceased to devour him. His security has never picked our pocket, or broke our leg, nor injured our reputation half as much as his own.

But does our very urbane and amiable and christian brother councillor recollect the anecdote of the dog who bayed the moon. Poor Tray! When the moon kept silently along regardless of his snarls, he felt his own canine insignificance.

And now my good sir, will you toe the mark. Tell us at once the reason why you do not publish that infamous resolution we have adverted to, charging the riots of Philadelphia to the whigs and Mr. Clay, which your own party evidently regarded with such decided abhorrence and contempt that you dared not press its adoption.

THE MORMONS.

We are told there are now in the county of Addison four Mormons who have been electioneering in Bristol, Lincoln and Starksboro for Joe Smith as President. One of these a Mr. Huston has sent us a Pamphlet to publish containing the views of the defunct candidate on Government. This phrenzied sect have also established a press in New York, advocating the claims of their favorite candidate. Recently the Mormons have held a political meeting in one of the beautiful groves which adorn the city of Cleveland. Mr. Winter the chief speaker assigned as the reason why the saints had resolved on political organization was for redress of the wrongs and outrages committed on their society. The death of General Smith of course ends further political organization for the present.

The Herald says, no allusion on Saturday or Sunday was made to the murder of the two Smiths, and in conversation they manifest but little excitement and do not anticipate any interruption of the progress of Mormonism. One of them remarked that the "country would be in a wretched condition if there was but one prophet in the land," and we understand that Sidney Rigdon is next in the prophetic succession.

Correspondence of the Missouri Republican. Mr. Chambers, one of the Editors of the Missouri Republican, writes from Quincy the 30th ult.

"At Quincy I found Gov. Ford. He reached Columbus on Friday morning, very much exhausted, so much so that he had to be lifted from his carriage. The next day he reached this place, where he has established his head quarters. He has established expressions between this and the seat of war, by which he is almost hourly advised of passing events. The reason for the Governors removal to this place and establishing his head quarters here, is his want of confidence in the people immediately in the vicinity of the excitement. He is alike afraid to trust either the troops or the citizens around Carthage and Warsaw.

THE MURDER OF THE MORMONS.—The Cincinnati Gazette states that a traveller, who arrived at that city on the 3d inst., of apparent candor and truth, relates the following account of the death of the Prophet:

He was in prison, with Hiram at Carthage, and a guard of 60 men placed over them by order of Gov. Ford. The Guard, except about eight had left their position at the jail, when a mob disguised in dress, and painted black in their faces, rushed into the jail, shot Hiram dead, and then killed Joe. No resistance was made by either. Joe was leaning or setting upon a window when shot; he fell from it exclaiming, My God! My God! and died. After he reached the ground he was stabbed apparently by a young man, in the breast, who said "Damn you; take that; you killed my father." The Mormons have removed the dead bodies of Joe and Hiram Smith to Nauvoo.

MR. BURCHARD'S LETTER.

We call most earnestly upon every third party man to peruse and re-peruse the letter of Mr. Burchard on our first page. Several of the eminent abolitionists are now taking the same grounds with Mr. Burchard. David Lee Child, long Editor of the Anti-Slavery Standard, and Mr. Fowler of Otsego, an abolitionist, impelled by strong sense of duty to sacrifice every thing for the country, had taken the field for Henry Clay whose election they regard as the last means of arresting annexation, which if triumphant will extinguish all hopes of final victory to the cause of abolition. The only real rivals for the Presidency are Mr. Clay and Mr. Polk; a single state for Birney is out of the question. The success of this abominable conspiracy to annex Texas will ensure a preponderance to Southern domination, and place slavery hopelessly beyond the reach of anti-slavery efforts. Even should abolitionists, as they seem to think they may conscientiously do, cleave down the constitution, and dissolve the Union, they will not have released a single slave. If Polk is elected, immediate and unconditional annexation is the certain result. If Mr. Clay is elected no fears on this score need be entertained. If we are to believe this openhearted and patriotic statesman, there can be no combination of circumstances except the universal voice of the nation which will justify annexation. You then abolitionists are to decide whether by directing your votes to Mr. Birney, you do not increase the chances of defeating the great object for which you are contending. Should Polk succeed, and Texas be annexed in consequence of your voting for Mr. Birney, as friends of your country and the African race could you ever forgive yourselves. Would the three millions of slaves now in bondage forgive you. It is true that Mr. Clay is a slaveholder. But if Mr. Clay is evidently the choice and the only instrument to defeat the project absolutely fatal to abolitionism, are you not solemnly bound to vote for him? You do not thus sanction the wrong of slaveholding. Every man has something about his character or practices which we cannot approve. But notwithstanding if Mr. Clay will accomplish a mighty good no otherwise secured or averted a night evil not otherwise to be avoided than by placing him in power, none but a mind absolutely phrenzied could conscientiously refuse him his vote. You must look to the principles involved and not to the man. If you vote for Clay it is no annexation either now nor hereafter. If you vote for Birney or Polk, it is "Polk Texas and Perpetual Slavery!" Choose ye then abolitionists, looking up to Heaven for approbation which ye will serve, by your suffrages the cause of human liberty or help to fasten still stronger the manacles of Slavery upon three millions of our race now in cruel bondage in our country.

GREAT STORM AND FRESHET. On Wednesday morning our town was visited by a severe rain with violent thunder and lightning. The lightning struck the conductor of the Winoski Church, and the sidewalk near Mr. Catlin's on the hill.

About one o'clock the rain and thunder again came on and lasted for an hour or more.

But the evening brought the severest and most violent rain which has occurred here for fourteen years. It rained torrents for two hours, flooding the streets, and carrying away bridges and huge masses of earth, almost in an instant.

An Extra Stage coach from the South coming toward this village about one o'clock at night, was precipitated into a deep gulley across the road made by the carrying away of a bridge, and one of the passengers, Mrs. Whitney the mother of our townsmen, Messrs. Henry and Stephen Whitney, was drowned before she could be extricated from the coach. The other passengers four in number, were rescued. Two horses were also lost.

This melancholy accident is the only one which has yet come to our knowledge, but we fear there are more to come. If the rain fall as long and as fast up the river, the destruction of property must have been great.—Burlington Free Press.

WHIG RALLIES IN VERMONT. The Whig fires burn bright among the mountains. The gathering at Woodstock of the enemies of free-trade Polketry and annexation was reckoned at five thousand, and addressed by those able and zealous advocates of the Whig cause Messrs. Phelps and Marsh.

Windham County had a noble meeting at Newfane, on the 2d and nominated William Harris, Samuel F. Thompson and Reuben Winn for Senators.

Rutland County, had a mass meeting at which E. N. Briggs, Joseph H. Chittenden and Frederick Bottom were nominated to the Senate.

A District mass meeting has been announced by the Watchman for Monday at Danville. A gallant rally is expected. Senators Phelps and Upham and Messrs. Marsh and Foot are expected to address the meeting.
